A multifaceted individual, Jovian expresses his love for music through his unique creations. He is a cross-genre musician who has written almost every kind of genre ranging from Hip Hop for MC's such as Kensho Kuma, Shing02 and to producing music for animations and various compilations. Rocking clubs from XinJiang to SF, he sometimes mixes his sets up by playing : bass, keys and guitar. Jovian grew up in San Francisco and has a strong background in the funk / blues genres.

Jovian's production debut was for the 2004 Solos Records compilation where he released two funk infused downtempo tracks (one receiving praise in XL8R magazine). By 2006, he had moved on to bigger and better things writing music and doing shows in China's vibrant nightlife.

Jovian is currently working on his first solo electronic album and is hosting a monthly party in Chengdu (DiscoDeath).
